CORPUS CHRISTIANORUM

PATRISTIC LATIN SERIES

Corpus Christianorum Series Latina – CCSL

The Corpus Christianorum, Series Latina comprises critical editions of all the Latin texts from the first eight centuries of the Christian era, from Tertullian to Bede († 735). Taking account of the most recent patristic research and studies, each edition is provided with full critical and source apparatus and preceded by an introduction, the most important part of which is the description of the manuscript tradition.

Clavis Patristica Pseudepigraphorum Medii Aevi – CPPM

This Clavis presents all the Latin pseudepigraphical texts which during the Middle Ages circulated under the name of patristic authors. Besides the incipit and explicit of each text, information on the most important editions has been gathered. The catalogue also tries to identify the real names of the authors and gives references to all studies which involve a particular text.

Nouveau Recueil des Lexiques Latin-Français du Moyen Age – LLF

The series focuses on Latin-vernacular dictionaries. It offers researchers the opportunity to study the vocabulary of medieval Latin and its vernacular equivalents. The current work is centred on Latin-French dictionaries or glossaries. The Latin-French section is co-directed by Professors Brian Merrilees and Anne Grondeux.

PATRISTIC GREEK & BYZANTINE SERIES

Corpus Christianorum Series Graeca – CCSG

The Corpus Christianorum, Series Graeca aims to replace Jacques-Paul Migne's Patrologia Graeca, which no longer fulfils the requirements of modern scholarship. Thus, the Series Graeca has been set up with the explicit aim of filling the gaps in the Patrologia Graeca and redoing editions published elsewhere in a deficient way. Priority is given to post-Nicene authors<sup>56</sup>, thus completing the Berlin Corpus. The works of Gregory of Nazianzus are published in the subseries Corpus Nazianzenum (CN).

Bibliotheca Basiliana Universalis – CCBBU

The aim of this series is to put in the hands of any genuinely interested reader as much primary information as possible on the works of Basil of Caesarea. Rather than withholding from the readers the information on which scholarly conclusions are based and giving them only the results of the research, the Bibliotheca Basiliana Universalis has been conceived as a tool for judging the accuracy of the premises on which the investigation rests.

La théologie byzantine – CCTB

L'ouvrage, avec des articles substantiels consacrés aux personnalités majeures de la théologie byzantine du VI<sup>e</sup> au XIX<sup>e</sup> siècle, s'adresse en premier lieu aux spécialistes (patristiciens, byzantinistes, historiens des religions, théologiens, médiévistes, orientalistes, slavissants ...), mais son caractère de "somme", ses bibliographies critiques et ses nombreuses traductions d'écrits théologiques, le rendent également indispensable aux étudiants et à toute personne intéressée par le christianisme grec, oriental et slave. Un troisième volume portera sur l'histoire ecclésiastique et la théologie du monde orthodoxe non grec, considéré par pays ou zones linguistiques. Les langues de publication sont le français, l'allemand, l'anglais, l'italien, l'espagnol.

APOCRYPHAL TEXTS SERIES (MULTILINGUAL)

Corpus Christianorum Series Apocryphorum – CCSA

In much the same way as the Series Latina and the Series Graeca, a group of scholars from the universities of Geneva, Fribourg, Neuchâtel, Lausanne, and of the École Pratique des Hautes Études of Paris will publish all the pseudepigraphical or anonymous texts of Christian origin attributed to biblical characters or based on events reported or suggested by the Bible. The series' purpose is to enrich the knowledge of apocryphal Christian literature by supplying editions of often dispersed and even unedited texts. Besides the critical text, each volume contains a complete study of the apocrypha edited, with commentary and translation into a modern language.

TRANSLATIONS

Corpus Christianorum in Translation – CCT

The series Corpus Christianorum in Translation provides modern translations of patristic and medieval Greek and Latin texts that have been edited in one of the Corpus Christianorum series (Series Latina, Series Graeca and Continuatio Mediaevalis). These translations, which are published independently from the critical editions, are intended to render the texts edited in Corpus Christianorum accessible to those who do not have the opportunity to read them in the original language. For those conversant with the original language, the translations can serve as a tool for quick reference and an aid in interpreting the Greek or Latin text.
