The Journal of Medieval Latin, commencing Autumn 1991, has been established by a group of Canadian scholars for the purpose of encouraging new and original investigations in the field of Medieval Latin language and literature. The editors seek to encourage a broad range of articles dealing with every aspect of “Medieval Latin Studies”, a term that is perhaps better expressed by the German “die lateinische Philologie des Mittelalters.”

The Journal of Medieval Latin, créé en automne 1991, a été fondé par un groupe de chercheurs canadiens dans le but d’encourager une recherche nouvelle et originale dans le domaine de la langue et de la littérature du latin médiéval. Les éditeurs cherchent à rassembler un large éventail d’articles concernant tous les aspects des « Medieval Latin Studies », formule peut-être mieux rendue par la « lateinische Philologie des Mittelalters » allemande.

Members of the Medieval Latin Association of North America receive a preferential rate.
