Instrumenta Patristica et Mediaevalia

Biblical and Manichaean Citations in Titus of Bostra's Against the Manichaeans An Annotated Inventory

P.-H. Poirier, T. Pettipiece

The main objective of the present inventory is to make available to specialists and all those interested the rich Biblical and Manichaean documentation used by Titus of Bostra in his refutation. With the exception of Augustine's Contra Faustum, Titus of Bostra's Against the Manichaeans is indisputably the most extensive Christian refutation of Manichaeism. Titus' work is also a goldmine of information on the Manichaean doctrine and a valuable source for the history of the text of the Old and New Testament in Greek and Syriac.

Scrinium Augustini. The World of Augustine's Letters Proceedings of the International Workshop on Augustine's Correspondence, Toruń, 25-26 June 2015

Przemysław Nehring, Mateusz Stróżyński, Rafał Toczko (eds.)

The papers presented in the book access the large corpus of Augustine's epistles from various academic perspectives (theological, philosophical, historical, literary and rhetorical). The result is a significant contribution to our understanding of the complex and fascinating Augustinian world, seen through the lens of his letters. The academic experience of the authors and their scholarly achievements guarantee the quality of this miscellany.

Prædicatio Patrum Studies on Preaching in Late Antique North Africa Gert Partoens, Anthony Dupont, Shari Boodts (eds.)

This volume contains the proceedings of the conference "Ministerium Sermonis. An International Colloquium on North African Patristic Sermons" (Malta, 8-10 April 2015) and hopes to give a new impetus to the study of late antique African preaching. Several contributions challenge accepted views regarding (supposedly) North African sermon collections. Other contributions offer detailed philological, theological and rhetorical text analyses, and focus on the sermons of Augustine as well as on Donatist preaching and the corpus of Pseudo-Fulgentius.

Langage des dieux, langage des démons, langage des hommes dans l'Antiquité

L. G. Soares Santoprete, P. Hoffmann (eds.)

Par 'noms barbares', on désigne dans les religions anciennes des noms ou énoncés proférés, principalement en contexte rituel, et dont l'efficacité dépend d'une opacité sémantique, d'une étrangeté. Afin de mesurer l'écart qui constitue le caractère 'barbare' de ces noms, cet ouvrage rassemble une série d'enquêtes sur divers dossiers qui permettent de comprendre les théories à travers lesquelles l'Antiquité a pensé la relations entre hommes, démons et dieux, chacune ayant sa langue, sa façon de se situer dans l'ordre hiérarchique du Réel et de se rapporter aux autres.

Rhétorique et thérapeutique dans le De medicina de Celse

A. Gautherie

Le présent ouvrage a pour objectif d'analyser les relations entre le domaine de la rhétorique et les divers aspects de la thérapeutique exposée par Celse, encyclopédiste romain du I<sup>er</sup> siècle ap. J.-C., dans son traité De Medicina, ou Sur la Médecine. Il s'agit principalement d'offrir pour la première fois une approche globale de l'ouvrage celsien, qui prenne en compte tous ses aspects, depuis sa publication par l'auteur jusqu'à sa possible mise en pratique par un soignant, professionnel ou amateur éclairé.

Arnobe, Contre les païens Religion, mythologie et polémique au III<sup>e</sup> siècle ap. J.-C.

J. Champeaux

Arnobe nous montre, à travers les sept livres d'une apologie que sa mort laissa inachevée, comment la religion ancestrale des Romains et la mythologie empruntée aux Grecs peuvent être détournées de leur fin par une polémique véhémente ou insidieuse, à la limite de la mauvaise foi, pour la plus grande gloire du Dieu des chrétiens.

Les Mystères : nouvelles perspectives. Entretiens de Strasbourg

M. Philonenko, Y. Lehmann, L. Pernot (eds.)

This multidisciplinary volume features a study of the mysteries in the major religions of the Antiquity. It considers ceremonies, rituals, sacraments and the theological content, made up of doctrine and dogma. The domains taken into consideration include Greek and Roman paganism, Judaism and Christianity, Mazdeism, Eastern cults, until the Middle Ages and the Reformation. This study starts with the vocabulary and the linguistic transpositions and exchanges, in order to move on to the wider field of the major religious and philosophical issues.

RÉPERTOIRE DES TRADUCTIONS FRANÇAISES DES PÈRES DE L'ÉGLISE

An indispensable research tool for the study of the texts of the Greek, Latin and Eastern Fathers.

The Répertoire des traductions françaises des Pères de l'Église (RTF) is an indispensable tool for identifying and finding the translations of the works of the Church Fathers. The about 12,000 index cards dedicated to the French translations of Latin, Greek and Eastern Fathers are the work of Father Jacques Marcotte of Saint-Wandrille Abbey. The RTF is a unique source of information for the religious literature of Antiquity and the beginning of the Middle Ages. Although some scholarly editions do list the French translations (and those in other languages as well), none of them takes the partial translations into account. The database is the first to offer a methodical census. Because of its scale, the RTF has no equivalent either in the French-speaking world or in any other linguistic region. From the summer of 2017 onwards, the files concerning the Greek Fathers will be searchable in the RTF. In 2018, an update will enrich the database with the Latin Fathers, the Eastern Fathers and the Apocrypha.

KEY FEATURES:

- Gives all the references to complete translations of a work and to translations of excerpts
- Contains 12,363 sheets:
  - Greek Fathers: 6180
  - Latin Fathers: 3836
  - Eastern Fathers: 1700
  - Apocrypha: 647
- Search screen with several searchable fields (author, title, reference), allowing a precise search
- Interface in two languages (French – English)

Jéroboam et la division du royaume Étude historico-philologique de I Rois 11, 26 - 12, 33

Giancarlo Toloni

Le problème exégétique de la figure de Jéroboam consiste à vérifier si les divergences entre les récits parvenus dans I Rois 11,26 – 12,33 se sont produites au fil de la transmission textuelle, ou si elles remontent à des traditions plus anciennes.

New Cities in Late Antiquity Documents and Archaeology
Efthymios Rizos (ed.)

This volume, deriving from a workshop organized in Istanbul in November 2013, brings together studies by archaeologists working on sites that were founded or developed as urban centres during Late Antiquity (3rd to 7th century AD). On the base of case studies and synthetic approaches it is attempted to draw a comprehensive picture of the state of research and a theoretical discussion on the motives and characteristics of city-building and settlement development in Late Antiquity.

I cicli affrescati paleocristiani di San Pietro in Vaticano e San Paolo fuori le mura
Proposte di lettura
Cecilia Proverbio

Il volume analizza la decorazione delle basiliche paleocristiane di S. Pietro in Vaticano e S. Paolo fuori le mura. Un aspetto particolare della decorazione di entrambi gli edifici era costituito dalla presenza di cicli affrescati, incentrati sulle storie dell'Antico e del Nuovo Testamento. Lo studio esamina queste narrazioni figurate, arrivando a formulare alcune nuove ipotesi in merito all'epoca di realizzazione e alle motivazioni che hanno portato ad una differenziazione di soggetto nei cicli dedicati al N.T.

Texts, Practices, and Groups
Multidisciplinary approaches to the history of Jesus' followers in the first two centuries
Adriana Destro, Mauro Pesce (eds)

This book focuses on a wider knowledge of the social and cultural context of the first two centuries, based on a systematic research of documentary and archaeological data. Secondly, the book addresses the need to use all the existing literary material for the reconstruction of the historical Jesus and his followers. Thirdly, the book stresses the importance of new epistemological and methodological. The last section of the volume is dedicated to the connection between contemporary research and the interpretations of Jesus and early Christianity developed in the modern age.

The Great Persecution: A Historical Re-Examination
Min Seok Shin

This book is a systematic and comprehensive study of the Great Persecution under Diocletian and his imperial colleagues and successors. Its focus is on the period between 284, when Diocletian became emperor; to 313, when full religious liberty was granted to all religions by the so-called Edict of Milan. The enforcement of the imperial orders, and the sufferings of Christians under them, are examined on a diocese-by-diocese basis, comparing the situation in the West and in the East.

Augustin d'Hippone Contre Fauste le manichéen Livres I-XII
M. Dulaey (ed.)

The Reply to Faustus the Manichean is one of Augustine's major works. It is of interest both to students of the bishop of Hippo's works and to specialists of Manichaeism, as it touches upon many aspects of the Manichean doctrine, and Augustine apparently reproduces in full a lost opusculum by Faustus before refuting it. The discussion and polemic against Faustus incorporates many aspects of Christian theology and Biblical exegesis that are important for knowledge of early Christianity.

Franz Cumont Manichéisme

D. Praet, M. Tardieu (eds)

This volume collects all the publications by Franz Cumont on the history and the spread of Manichaeism. It also contains a critical historiographical introduction by Michel Tardieu, who analyses the methodology Cumont used in the scientific context of his era, in particular with regard to the position of Manichaeism within the history of religions, and the links between Manichaeism, Zoroastrianism, the cult of Mithras and Christianity.

Contributions to the History of Latin Elegiac Distich

L. Ceccarelli

The life of the Latin elegiac distich spans over a very long period of time, from its importation in Rome in II century B.C. to the late antiquity, to the Middle Ages and beyond. This study is based on almost all the available data from the elegiac Latin poetry from Catullus to Venantius Fortunatus and offers a new reconstruction of the main lines of the evolution of the Latin elegiac distich in the first eight centuries of its history.

Corippe, Johannide, livre 4 Introduction, édition critique et commentaire

B. Goldlust

The Iohannis is a panegyric epic of eight books composed by Corippus in honor of the Magister militum John Troglita, whom the Emperor Justinian commanded to crush the Berber uprisings and pacify Africa in the years 546 to 548. In the overall economy of the poem, book 4 enjoys special status. It holds the end of the self-contained narration (3, 52 – 4, 246) of Africa's past, a territory now at bay, made by the tribune Liberatus, and evokes the first decisions of John Troglita, who arrived on the scene at a providential moment.

Victorinus Poetovionensis
Opera quae supersunt
R. Gryson

De l'œuvre de Victorin de Poetovio peu de chose nous est parvenu. Mis à part un court traité sur la semaine primordiale (CPL 79) et une note sur la chronologie de la vie du Christ prise dans les archives d'Alexandre de Jérusalem, l'essentiel de son héritage littéraire est constitué par un commentaire de l'Apocalypse composé vraisemblablement sous Gallien, dans les années 260 (CPL 80). Jusqu'il y a un siècle, ce commentaire était connu seulement à travers une édition revue et corrigée par Jérôme.

Sulpicius Severus
Chronica
P. Parroni

La presente edizione dei 'Chronica' di Sulpicio Severo, un'opera fondamentale, tra l'altro, per la conoscenza della storia delle eresie del IV sec., segna un progresso rispetto a quella di Karl Halm (1866), non solo per una rinnovata ispezione autoptica del 'codex unicus' (Vat. Pal. lat. 825 = P) che li tramanda, ma anche per un riesame del secolare travaglio critico esercitato a partire dall'editio princeps' (Basilea 1556 = b), che ha portato a significativi miglioramenti del testo.

Vigilius Thapsensis
Contra Arrianos, Sabellianos, Photinianos dialogus
P.-M. Hombert

La présente édition explique la double rédaction du 'Contra Arrianos', due à Vigile lui-même, et offre une vision d'ensemble de sa transmission très complexe. Elle propose une organisation du texte totalement nouvelle, mais scrupuleusement justifiée.
