The Fourth Lateran Council and the Crusade Movement
The Impact of the Council of 1215 on Latin Christendom and the East
Jessalynn Bird, Darnian Smith (eds)

This book, bringing together an international team of scholars, is the first to deal with Fourth Lateran and the crusades in entirety and argues for the centrality of the council in the history of the crusades. It will be of interest not only to scholars of the history of the crusades but also to those interested in the history of the religious life of the Middle Ages as well to students of the particular areas and themes under discussion.

Convivium
Exchanges and Interactions in the Arts of Medieval Europe, Byzantium, and the Mediterranean
Editor-in-chief: Ivan Foletti
Convivium, brings back to life a defunct periodical, the Seminarium Kondakovianum. The new journal, begun in 2014 by scholars in six countries, takes a widely expansive view and encompasses scholarship in many disciplines. Starting with art history, it extends into the allied fields of anthropology, archaeology, historiography, literature, liturgy and history. Similarly, the period throughout which it ranges is bounded by the broadest possible definition of the Middle Ages, from the third century to the sixteenth.
