VICTORINE TEXTS IN TRANSLATION

Exegesis, Theology, and Spirituality from the Abbey of St Victor

In the twelfth century, the Augustinian Canons of the Abbey of St Victor in Paris occupied a critical position between traditional, meditative theology and emerging scholasticism. In a series of 10 thematic volumes, this collaborative effort will make available in new, annotated English translations many of their most important and influential works, as well as other Victorine works that deserve to be better known.

On the Sacraments

A Selection of Works of Hugh and Richard of St. Victor, and of Peter of Poitiers

Hugh Feiss OSB (ed.)

Victorine texts on the Sacraments, especially marriage and confession

The Canons Regular of St. Victor were important contributors to the theology of the sacraments in the twelfth century. This volume introduces and translates much of Hugh's treatment on the Christian Sacraments, as contained in De sacramentis 1.9 and 2.5-9, 11-12 and 14, as well as his treatise on the Virginity of the Blessed Virgin, two treatises on penance by Richard of St. Victor, and the penitential of Peter of Poitiers. The historical introductions and annotated translations make this volume suitable for courses on the development of the theology of the sacraments through the twelfth century.

Hugh Feiss, OSB, a monk of the Monastery of the Ascension (Jerome, ID) is the managing editor of the series Victorine Texts in Translation. He is editor of volume two, On Love, volume eight, Sermons for the Liturgical Year, and the present volume ten, On the sacraments. He was co-editor of A Companion to the Abbey Saint Victor in Paris (2017). His other publications include Achard of St Victor, Works (2001) and Peter of Celle, Selected Works (1987).
