VICTORINE TEXTS IN TRANSLATION

Exegesis, Theology, and Spirituality from the Abbey of St Victor

In the twelfth century, the Augustinian Canons of the Abbey of St Victor in Paris occupied a critical position between traditional, meditative theology and emerging scholasticism. In a series of 10 thematic volumes, this collaborative effort will make available in new, annotated English translations many of their most important and influential works, as well as other Victorine works that deserve to be better known.

Sermons for the Liturgical Year

H. B. Feiss

This volume makes available for the first time in English over forty Victorine sermons arranged according to the Liturgical year and fully introduced and annotated, and situated in the development of the Latin sermon.

The Canons Regular who followed the Rule of St Augustine at St Victor of Paris in the twelfth century bequeathed to subsequent generations a legacy of over 200 carefully crafted sermons for the major feasts of their liturgical year. The sermons that Maurice de Sully, bishop of Paris (1160-1196) prepared in Latin and Old French for parish priests drew on the expertise of Richard of St Victor. In this volume are sermons by Hugh, Achard, Richard, Walter, and Godfrey of St Victor; Maurice de Sully, and Absalom of Springiersbach, arranged in liturgical order. Most of these sermons appear in English for the first time.

Hugh Feiss, OSB, a monk of the Monastery of the Ascension (Jerome, ID) is the managing editor of the series Victorine Texts in Translation. He is editor of volume two, On Love, and the forthcoming volume ten on the sacraments. He was co-editor of A Companion to the Abbey Saint Victor in Paris (2017). His other publications include Achard of St Victor, Works (2001) and Peter of Celle, Selected Works (1987).
