

ANSELM OF CANTERBURY

(c. 1033 – 1109)

On the occasion of the 900th anniversary of the death of Anselm of Canterbury, Brepols Publishers are delighted to offer a broad range of titles at a special 25% discount, unless otherwise stated. The selected titles are related to the world of Anselm of Canterbury, his thoughts and ideas, his contemporaries, the medieval society he lived in, and so on. The books are classified into five groups : Medieval Philosophy & Theology, Medieval Church History, General Works & Studies on the Middle Ages, the series Civcima, Latin Sources & Medieval Sources in Translation, and Studies in Medieval Art History.

We wish to remind you that this special offer is valid until 30 September 2009. The discount is not applicable on new titles (marked with NEW). The prices on the leaflet do not include the discount.

MEDIEVAL PHILOSOPHY & THEOLOGY

G. Gasper, H. Kohlenberger (eds.)

Anselm and Abelard. Investigations and Juxtapositions

viii + 256 p., 150 x 230 mm, Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies, PMS 19, PB, ISBN 978-0-88844-819-4, € 55

Anselm and Abelard offers a wide-ranging collection of papers on two of the most well-known medieval thinkers, Anselm of Canterbury and Peter Abelard. The majority of the contributions explore the intellectual world of the medieval west in the century between the mid-eleventh and the mid-twelfth, a period crucial in forming intellectual frameworks that would shape subsequent western thought.

L'originalité du nouveau répertoire d'incipit de manuscrits médiévaux latins réside dans le caractère inédit de la majorité de la documentation rassemblée. Répondant à un souhait exprimé depuis longtemps par plusieurs chercheurs, nous avons essayé d'enregistrer des informations figurant dans des fichiers peu ou pas accessibles à la majorité des médiévistes.

The medieval cult of the Virgin is almost the story of the Middle Ages itself, and to gain an insight into it is an essential step towards an understanding of the period. Whilst the subject relates to Western European culture as a whole, the book deliberately focuses on English Marian devotion as a case study.
