

SELECTED NEW SERIES

ARCHAEOLOGY

We are pleased to provide you with an overview of new book series in the field of Archaeology for which we launched a first volume in the course of 2023-2026. By publishing most of our archaeology titles in book series, Brepols aims at presenting ongoing research in a structured and cohesive way. Each volume in a series undergoes rigorous peer review, ensuring the highest standards of academic integrity and scholarly excellence.

We very much welcome your standing order, directly with Brepols or through your usual library supplier, so that you will receive new volumes of ongoing series automatically, without the need for individual purchase decisions each time a new volume is released.

We offer these series simultaneously in print and online (purchase with perpetual access) and these series may also include Open Access publications

The Archaeology and History of Western Asia (300 BCE–750 CE)

From the Hellenistic Period to the End of the Umayyad Dynasty

Series Editors: Nathanael Andrade, Rubina Raja

www.brepols.net/series/AHWA

Western Asia has always played a central role in history. Rich in archaeological and written evidence, it is an area that has been dubbed variously as one of the cradles of civilization, as home to some of the world's oldest cultures, and as the birthplace of the three Abrahamic world religions, as well as the remarkable phenomenon of Manichaeism.
