See Overleaf

The Journal of the Alamire Foundation provides a critical forum for the most recent and outstanding research on music in or related to the Low Countries up to the end of the Ancien Régime.

Each issue consists of three sections. The first focuses on a specific theme. The second contains free papers applying the full range of musicological approaches on any relevant topic. The third section fulfills the Foundation's mission of promoting dialogue between the worlds of performance and scholarship by offering discussions of recent performance events, productions, editions, books, or issues. The journal's distinctive qualities ensure it maintains a unique profile. Its emphasis on research of the highest quality aims to place it among the leading journals in its field.
