TESTIMONIAL

« En tant que chercheur avec 26 ans d'expérience et 20 livres publiés dans des maisons d'édition espagnoles, françaises, anglaises et italiennes, en plus du Corpus Christianorum (9 de ces 20 livres), je peux affirmer que cette collection est ma préférée et celle que je recommande toujours aux jeunes chercheurs. J'apprécie particulièrement le respect du comité éditorial envers le travail des chercheurs et la liberté dont ceux-ci jouissent pour rédiger les introductions de leurs éditions (sans restrictions de longueur ni obstacles aux chapitres proposés par l'auteur). Du point de vue des éditions des textes, la révision minutieuse de l'éditeur du Corpus Christianorum, réalisée par des spécialistes en la matière, permet même d'améliorer les originaux présentés à la collection, de sorte que la version imprimée de ces livres est généralement meilleure que la version initiale de l'auteur. »

TESTIMONIAL

"We have published two Latin critical editions with Brepols (Carla, CCCM 201; together, CCCM 201A), and CCCM provided outstanding service in producing a precise quality product. A critical edition requires unique layout in order to present the various critical apparatuses keyed to text line numbers (which are only implemented at the time of typesetting), as well as manuscript folio numbers and explanatory notes. Brepols worked closely with us in both cases to ensure that the finished product reflected the complex requirements of the text. The final results are beautiful, useful editions."

“TESTIMONIAL

“My collaboration with Brepols significantly contributed to enhancing the quality of the book, both through the high standard of scholarly peer review and the editor’s exceptionally careful and attentive multiple readings of the manuscript. I especially appreciate the efficient and dynamic communication with the publisher, as well as the constructive, dialogue-based approach to resolving questions and uncertainties.”

Anna Ledzińska (CCCM 328)

“My collaboration with Brepols was very positive and professional. The feedback provided by the reviewers, the editorial board, and the managing editor was constructive and highly valuable, and thanks to their insights and the dedicated work of the managing editor, the final edition is significantly stronger than it would have been without their contribution.”

Anna Zajchowska-Boltromiuk (CCCM 328)

TESTIMONIAL

“As the author of a critical edition, I submitted my work to Brepols for publication in the CCSG. My experience could not have been better: Not only have I been assisted in every phase of the process—with editing the critical text, refining the introduction, and with the indexes—but Brepols’ editorial board has been accompanying step by step the whole process, always available to help out and to provide me with the necessary insights. Last but not least, the prompt responsiveness and friendliness of the editorial staff were a great help during the most delicate moments of the process. My editorial adventure could not have been smoother or more pleasant!”

Pietro D'Agostino (CCSG 102)

CORPVS CHRISTIANORVM CONCILIORVM OECVMENICORVM GENERALIVMQUE DECRETA

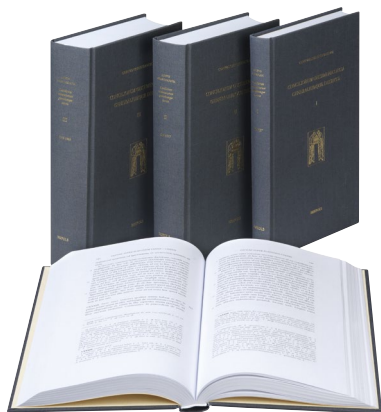

This series publishes critical editions of the decrees of those church councils which are termed 'ecumenical', as well as those of the main 'general' councils whose authority is recognized by most Christian denominations or are accorded such status within the Roman tradition. Canonical reception, theological effect, the scholarly consensus are therefore applied as the main criteria of a work based on scientific parameters and on philological principles. However, as well as each scholar who needs definitive editions, also the theologian can trace the proper approach of their discipline and confession. When finished, the series will consist of six comprehensive volumes, spanning almost two millennia of conciliar decrees, all of them critically edited, indexed, and introduced by specialists. This unprecedented research program is conducted under the direction of Giuseppe Alberigo i.m. and Alberto Melloni.

CORPVS CHRISTIANORVM IN TRANSLATION

The series Corpus Christianorum in Translation provides modern translations of patristic and medieval Greek and Latin texts that have been edited in one of the Corpus Christianorum series (Series Latina, Series Graeca and Continuatio Mediaevalis). These translations, which are published independently from the critical editions, are intended to render the texts edited in Corpus Christianorum accessible to those who do not have the opportunity to read them in the original language. For those conversant with the original language, the translations can serve as a tool for quick reference and an aid in interpreting the Greek or Latin text.

TESTIMONIAL

"I have published two editions in the Corpus Christianorum series and one volume in the Corpus Christianorum in Translation series. The editors of both series at Brepols were knowledgeable scholars, who were also very considerate and helped substantially with the preparation of the books at all stages. The production of the books from the time I submitted the typescripts to their appearance was well-organized and smooth and the books appeared reasonably quickly. The volumes themselves were attractive, of high quality, and were reviewed in prominent journals. I look forward to working with these series again in the insert period"
